

Addendum 2: the process of human death

From birth to (re)birth; the process of (re)incarnation

This picture shows the process of dying and death in a nutshell.

The soul, who you are, leaves through the top of the head at the moment of the physical death occurrence. This is opposite of the body, which left through the bottom of the pelvis at the moment of the physical birth occurrence. You ARE the soul and you HAVE a body. You are NOT the human body identity.

This final separation severs the silver, golden and crystal cords, which in reality determines the physical death of the human body. The silver cord severs the soul, who you are, from the body that you have. It is located in the middle of the chest bone in between the nipples. The golden cord severs the soul from its “consciousness”. It is located on the nose bump. The crystal cords sever the proton void from its “soul” and its “body”. This will trigger your living light or “consciousness” to shine forth behind a particular oval courtyard chamber in one of the 49 districts on “Heaven on Earth”.

There are many oval courtyard chambers throughout the Earth’s regions in the 5th dimension of Time or “Heaven” hereafter on the 4th dimension of Space-Time or “Earth” hereafter. The oval courtyard chambers are administrative and record keeping life-review interview debriefing offices and are the beginning of the crossover region between the inner “Soul” of planet Earth and the outer “Soul” of planet Earth or the soul collection places.

As soon as the cords are severed you will be surrounded by four souls who will “freeze” you. The “freezing” is extremely important because you are now in “Heaven on Earth” where your thoughts or consciousness becomes an instantaneous reality. It prevents you from manifesting your thoughts or consciousness.

These four souls will lead you to an awakening centre to assist you to break away from the human conditioning of the human life you just lived. They will walk you towards an awakening centre where a panel of three souls are awaiting your arrival. These souls are involved in the process of your awakening to the soul you are, which means that you will have to break free from the human conditioning of your last life you lived as an evolving soul. The souls will ask you pertinent questions about your true identity or soul consciousness. When you awaken to the soul who you are, you will be frozen once again and you will be led to the oval courtyard chamber or life review debriefing centre with your light or consciousness.

The oval courtyard chamber has an open space with an administrative and record keeping office, a desk with your book of the human life you just lived and a panel of two to five souls, depending on the perceived nature of the interview. If the interview is anticipated to be egocentric, resistant, reticent, recalcitrant or resentful, more souls will be present to do the interview. You are automatically protected in the oval courtyard chamber from manifesting your thoughts or consciousness. You could be alone or you could be accompanied by some of your soul guides, your protector, some of your soul family members and/or some souls who are still in human life but are with you during their sleep dreamtime. Your soul parents are the souls who gave birth to you as a soul. You have an extended primary soul family as an earthling in “Heaven” very much the same as on “Earth”. The soul also has a sex or is male or female.

You will do your life review at the review interview centre, which is basically a self-exam. It is about knowing yourself and your life in relevant detail.

It covers your personality (ears, hearing or “words”, thoughts, behaviors and attitudes). It also covers all matters pertaining to your mind (eyes, seeing and consciousness), heart (senses, feelings, states of being, emotions, states of ego, bodily sensations and life) and will (hands, doings and deeds or actions and death).

Your book of life contains a scorecard of your personality with behaviors and attitudes in life, your mind, your heart and your will. This score adds up to the color of your aura, which denotes the level of integration in the human-being degree as an evolving soul.

When there is a disagreement or disaccord between the interviewers and the interviewee, a fourth-dimensional hologram film appears between the soul in question and the soul panel doing the interview. The book of life of the soul in question will open automatically to the right page. What is shown in the 4D hologram film is the particular life scene related to the disagreement or disaccord. You will be able to observe exactly what went on and hear exactly what was said, leaving absolutely no room for doubt or misinterpretation. Sometimes life clouds our memories of what actually went on or what really was said. What is really important to understand is that you are NOT judged. The judge of you and your life is simply YOU. The panel of souls at the life review interview centre are the souls in charge of your life administratively. They DO NOT judge you whatsoever. In other words: there is NO Judgement Day. There is also a group of souls in charge of recording and administering your life. As an evolving soul the final decision of your life choices stay with you. You are in charge of the process of your life unfolding. You decide at all times. This is your journey as an evolving soul.

After the life review is done, you will get permission of the soul panel to step into your light or consciousness, which is at this time of your development as an evolving soul separated from you or is fractal. Its last function is to elevate or bring you to the temporary soul mansion or collection place of your aura color. This is not the real "Heaven" or the true House of souls. This is "Heaven on Earth", a mixed dimension. When the evolving souls are working through the human-being degree, the light or consciousness of the soul separates from the soul at the end of the human life. It will elevate or bring him or her to an in-between way-station or soul collection places. This is a temporary place where all the souls go for now until they have finished the human-being degree as an evolving soul. When you enter the mansion of your color you will notice that all the souls present have no face or identity. This is because the identity is still expressed through the bodies of earth or the minerals, bacteria, plants and trees, animals and humans. The soul only obtains its true, eternal identity, name or face after the fulfilment of the human-being degree, which means to obtain a white, integrated aura system. It is at this time the soul enters "Heaven" or the true House of all souls. Planet "Earth" is the true House of all bodies of minerals, bacteria, plants and trees, animals and humans.

If, for example, you are yellow in your aura color, your light or consciousness will bring you to the yellow mansion in this in-between way-station. This has nothing to do with the color yellow. It simply means that all the souls in this mansion have the same yellow aura color of integration. Each aura color from purple, indigo, blue, red, orange and yellow expresses the state of integration concerning the behavior and attitude of the human personality in question with the tools of the mind, hearth and will. All six aura colors have their own mansion.

There is a beautiful place in “Heaven” where all soul levels or degrees meet. This is a place to gain consciousness or motivation about your road ahead through other souls who have already gone through the different levels or degrees. Another beautiful place in “Heaven” is where the souls of animals, plants and trees go after their physical death. As a higher evolved soul going through the human being, soul or spirit degree, you have the right to visit this breathtaking place. You will see every kind of animal, plant or tree there.

When your life review has come to an end and you have been given permission from the soul panel to go into YOUR light or consciousness, you will notice your own personalized stepping stone in the oval courtyard chamber. Once you step onto the stepping stone, you will be able to feel the pull or attraction of your light or consciousness. This is a very pleasant experience. Once you fall into your light, you will fall asleep and you will be pulsed upwards like a heartbeat. Once you have reached your destination or mansion of your color, you will wake up again. You will be received by other souls that will direct you to another interview that will integrate your last life as a human being with all the lives you have lived as an evolving soul.

If you don't awaken in the awakening centre, you are brought to a hospice where skillful souls work on your awakening, after which you will be brought to your oval courtyard chamber to do your life review. This could take from a few days to a few months. As it stands today, 80% of the souls wake up to their soul reality consciousness after their physical death. Only 20% of the souls stay asleep and attached to their last life as a human being. "The Past, Present and Future of the Beforelife, Birth, Life, Death and the Afterlife" book contains more details.

If your aura is black you will be arrested immediately and you will be brought to a court of justice where you will be on trial before a panel of soul judges. You are in the dimension of Time, where the past, present and future are one and the same. The panel of judges are able to see eternally far into the future to see if an improvement is possible with the soul in question. If there is, the soul will be given an appropriate punishment up to when the improvement will occur. If there is not, the soul will be immediately executed. There are many soul cemeteries in "Heaven". A soul grave will contain a soul number, his or her degree and sometimes a name if the soul died after the human-being degree.

Again, after the soul is dropped off by its light or consciousness in the in-between way-station, it will do another integrative life interview of all lives lived after its arrival. After this interview the soul will go to sleep for an undetermined time. The soul's length of sleep is determined by the heaviness of the last chosen human life load the soul has experienced on Earth. Some souls choose a very heavy life load, which means many life lessons, ways, tasks and missions to fulfil to speed up the learning, growing and integration. Some souls choose a very light life load. It depends on you as an evolving soul what you would like to do. As an evolving soul you will have to go through the mineral, bacteria, plant and tree, animal and human-being degrees. You will have to go through the basic life-lesson plans, ways of life, missions and tasks of life to fulfill, related to the different degrees. There is no choice here. The only choice you have as an evolving soul is how. You will live all of these degrees in your own unique way. After the human-being degree you will be able to make a choice. This will be discussed in the process of the evolving soul.

If the soul chooses to live a heavy life load, the soul will be tired, exhausted and will therefore need a longer sleep to recuperate or revitalize. Conversely, if the soul chooses to live a light life load, the soul will not be very tired and will therefore not sleep much. The average time a soul would sleep can vary from two, three months to up to ten years.

TIME EXISTS! IT IS NOT AN ILLUSION! What needs to be understood is that the phenomenon of time changes in the different dimensions.

Time on “Earth” is determined by the speed of the rotations of the celestial bodies i.e. its own rotational speed around its axis (day), the speed of the moon’s rotation, the speed of the Sun’s rotation as well as the Earth’s rotational speed around the Sun (year) and the rotational speed of the moon around the Earth (month). These are the main influences on the phenomenon of physical time. In “Heaven”, one day in the life of a soul lasts about eleven months on Earth. In the 6th dimension of Space or “Paradise” hereafter, one day in the life of a spirit lasts about 100,000 years on Earth. On top of that, many higher souls and spirits are able to manipulate Time and self-time as such, meaning to make time longer or shorter.

The soul will wake up when it feels refreshed and reenergized after 2-3 months with a light life load or up to ten years with a heavy life load. After the soul’s sleep it can take a break from human life to fulfil its human-being degree for a while. The goal is to obtain a white aura system through an enlightened or best-human-life scenario. The chapter on the process of human enlightenment will go in more detail. After a chosen break, or not, the soul decides to return to human life to learn, grow and try to finish up, depending on its level of integration in the human-being degree.

Houses
Symbolic Representation
Secondary Aura of the Planet

This picture represents the living secondary aura of planet Earth, which is the total of all of the primary auras of Life on “Earth”. This is the House or Home of the bodies of earth. Planet Earth lies in the centre. The middle part represents the in between way-station or sub-division or “Heaven” on “Earth.” You can see the six mansions or soul houses relating to the six colors of the aura system. Normally “Heaven” represents the House or Home of all souls. The outer part represents “Paradise” on “Earth”. Your light or consciousness will return to “Paradise” after it has dropped you off in the house or mansion relating to the color of your aura. Normally “Paradise” represents the House or Home of all spirits. At this time planet Earth is the home to plants, trees, animals and humans. It is not a soul or spirit planet.

At this time of the soul’s evolution for earthlings, the light is not personalized as such by the soul who you are. The light or “consciousness” and the soul are separated (fractal). The fulfilment of the process of human enlightenment and soul consciousness allows for the soul to personalize its light or “consciousness”. The chapter on the process of human enlightenment will go into more detail. As is mentioned before, your light at the life review interview and crossover centre, will bring you to one of the six mansions related to the color of your aura in the in-between way-station.

The soul (human) has an aura system with a color.
The colors indicate the ways, lessons, tasks and missions in the human condition (human being degree). The color also indicates which soul chamber in the house of souls (5th dimension) the soul will go to after the physical death has occurred and after crossing over.

- Purple; bad behavior, bad attitude (personality), bad mind, good heart, bad will (choices) (6th place)
- Indigo; bad behavior, bad attitude (personality), good mind, bad heart, bad will (choices) (5th place)
- Blue; bad behavior, bad attitude (personality), good mind, good heart, bad will (choices) (4th place)
- Red; good behavior, good attitude (personality), bad mind, good heart, good will (choices) (3rd place)
- Orange; good behavior, good attitude (personality), good mind, bad heart, good will (choices) (2nd place)
- Yellow; good behavior, good attitude (personality), good mind, good heart, good will (choices) (1st place)

Please note that there is no green aura or chakra color. Green isn't a color; it is the average of all colors and lies exactly between the black, which is the absence of all colors, and the white, which is the presence of all colors. Green represents the skin or the transition between the inner and the outer milieu of the body. Green also represents the biomass or biosphere surface or the transition between the inner and outer milieu of the Earth. There are no green flowers unless they are genetically modified or changed chemically for example. Green also belongs to the proton and the proton Sun.

As is mentioned in the picture, the six colors of the aura are all related to the integration of the personality's behavioral and attitudinal, mind, heart and will patterns. The black aura means that the behavior, attitude, mind, heart and will are all bad. The yellow aura means that the behavior, attitude, mind, heart and will are all good. The white aura is a reward of having lived the perfect or best-scenario-life, which simply means to live an enlightened or good life, to be good and to do good deeds intermixed with random acts of kindness and goodness. This is the reason why human beings live their lives.

After the soul has woken up in its mansion related to the color of its aura, it can decide to take a little break or it can decide to go back right away to live another human life to try to finish up the human-being degree. For the soul to be able to return to planet Earth to live another human life, it has to make a new life plan, which under normal, unchanged circumstances can take up to ten to twenty years to fulfil. The book of your last human life that you saw at the life review centre will be your guideline for your next new life plan. You will study your last life thoroughly to generate your new life plan. You will start your new future human life with the same aura color and the same situation and circumstances where you finished your last past life. This process will repeat itself until you free yourself from this cycle of incarnations by reaching human enlightenment or a white aura system. This will allow you to continue your journey as a mature soul in real "Heaven" or the House or Home of all souls. In order to continue its journey as an evolving soul in the "human being" degree, it facilitates a new life plan before it reincarnates into another human lifeform. The soul in question must go through six places.

6th place: you will study the ways of your last past life and improve, redo or reuse them. This can take 5 to 10 "Earth" years.

5th place: you will study your lessons, tasks and missions of your past life and improve, redo or reuse them. This can take 1 to 2 years.

4th place: you will study the environment(s) of your new future life and you will learn how to deal with it. This can take 1 to 2 years.

3rd place: you will study the language(s) of your new future life to familiarize your human ears after rebirth on “Earth”. This can take 1 to 2 years.

2nd or most important place: you will study your new future “Earth” life’s family set up i.e. father, mother, children, family, friends, potential partners, your genetics, your sex, your looks etc. You, as an evolving soul, will choose your “Earth” parents and your extended “Earth” family before your human physical rebirth. The soul families from “Heaven” will live together as a human family from “Earth” in general. There are many exceptions. Everything is set in place to enhance and advance its new life plan in the “human being” degree as an evolving soul. This place can take 1 to 2 years.

1st place: you will remember, repeat and integrate everything you have learned in all the previous places. This can take 1 to 2 years.

Your appointed personal guides and protector will help you with your choices. Each human being on Earth is accompanied by 3 to 10 soul guides who will help the soul in question to live its best-life-scenario. Some of these guides have been with you since the very beginning of your journey as an evolving soul or since your soul birth. Some of the guides will change depending on your needs. A different life lesson might require a different soul guide for example. Your protector is a 6th dimensional paradisiacal light being or “spirit” who can fly. The function of the protector is to protect you from your own hurt and harm as well as the hurt and harm done from others. He or she will stay up to 100,000 years with you after which he or she will be replaced by another protector.

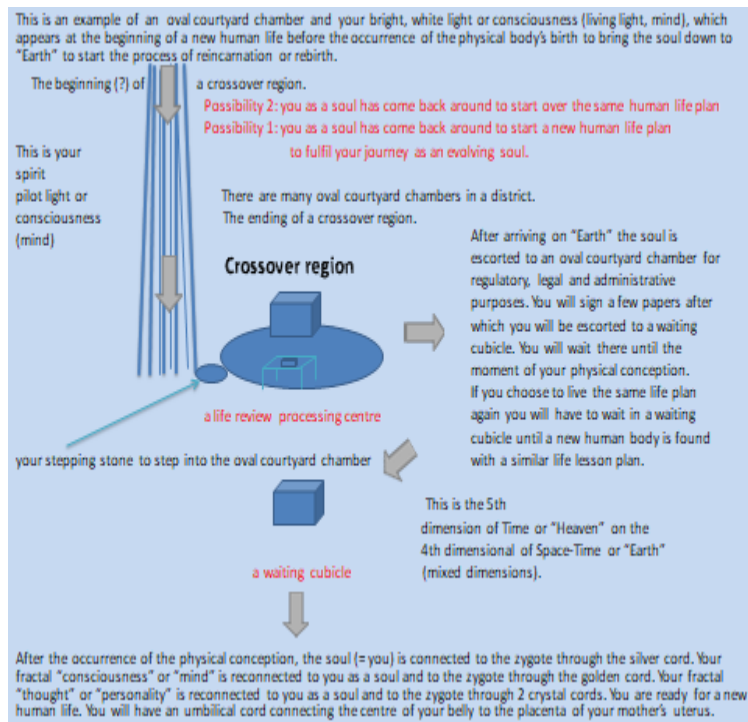

As a mature, integrated soul you will also be protected by a spirit protector. You will be taught by souls who are one level higher than you.

At the spirit level you will be protected and taught by a spirit who is one level higher than you. At the highest spirit degree you will be protected and taught by an Immortal.

When you are on “Earth”, your protector is sometimes allowed to protect you from hurt and harm done. This will depend very much on the human life plan of the evolving soul. Sometimes the suffering is deemed necessary as part of the life plan to learn and grow from important life lessons. In this case, the soul guides and spirit protector are not allowed to interfere. If the hurt or harm has nothing to do with the life lesson plan, chances are that you will receive the appropriate help. Most people these days are very far removed from the soul who they are. Many people live a very materialistic, physical life without much thought of anything else. When you are disconnected from your soulness, you could miss the opportunity to find help. This disconnectedness can lead to a temporary separation from your guides and protector, leaving you, for the time being, isolated in your human beingness. Your guides and protector are appointed to assist you into reaching human enlightenment and soul consciousness to be able to break free from the cycle of reincarnations. This is true liberation. They will never really leave you alone. It is your choice in life to be lost. It is you that forgets about the soul who you are and the human body you have. It is you who gives more importance to the physical, material world. It is you who chooses to abandon your guides and protector. They are always there for you.

You can see from the above mentioned that your life on “Earth” is a choice of the evolving soul going through the human-being degree. As a soul you choose everything and everyone during your preparations of your new life plan for a new human life on Earth before your human birth occurs. As soon as you enter the human sphere or “Earth” you will no longer remember the soul who you are with a few exceptions here and there.

YOU ARE HERE TO LEARN AND GROW FROM THE HUMAN LIFE YOU CHOSE AS AN EVOLVING SOUL. THE STATE OF BEING HUMAN IS A DEGREE IN THE JOURNEY OF THE EVOLVING SOUL. THE DEGREE OF HUMANBEINGNESS IS RELATED TO THE LESSONS OF “GOOD” VERSUS “BAD.” GOOD BECOMES WHITE AND BAD BECOMES BLACK IN THE AURA SYSTEM. YOU CHOOSE! TO BECOME WHITE IN YOUR AURA SYSTEM IS THE ULTIMATE GOAL OF LIFE FOR ALL EARTHLINGS, WHICH WILL ALLOW YOU TO CONTINUE AS A MATURE, INTEGRATED EVOLVING SOUL. NO MORE BODILY INCARNATIONS OR REBIRTH.

After you have finished your new life plan you will arrange a time of return to "Earth". Once the time has come you will leave the mansion of your aura's color and your light or "consciousness" will come to collect you and bring you down to "Earth". You will fall asleep and slowly pulse back down again. Once you reach "Earth", you will wake up and enter the oval courtyard chamber in the district closest to your new human rebirth entry. You will discuss, summarize your life plan with the souls who are in charge of the process of your life as well as with your soul guides and protector. You will sign a few papers after which you will be taken to a waiting cubicle close to your new human rebirth entry. You will wait there for an undetermined time. When your new Earth parents create a new zygote or fertilized ovum, which is the conception, you as a soul will automatically and instantaneously connect with the zygote through the silver cord to connect you to your body as well as through the golden cord, which connects you to your light or “consciousness”. Your mind or consciousness is fractal or breaks off at the human death from the soul who you are. As a human body you are mindless. As a soul you are temporarily mindless. Your mind or “consciousness” reconnects at the conception or human rebirth to the soul who you are. The mindful soul steers its mindless body. The soul who you are gives “life” to its death body. Your body is NOT alive. The conception is actually your real rebirth into the realm of “Earth”. Being in the womb of your new “Earth” family mother in essence means that you are still in “Heaven” but you are on “Earth”. You are here but you are “invisible” in essence. You are floating in the womb’s water, which represents a mixed dimension or “Heaven on “Earth”. Your rebirth at the moment of conception will launch your life as a human being on “Earth.” You will have fulfilled a full cycle from (re)birth to life to death to afterlife to beforelife to rebirth as an evolving soul.

It is not necessary for an evolving soul to step into its living light or “consciousness”, which breaks off at the end of its human life. It is possible that you as an evolving soul decide to not go into your light. After your life review interview of the human life you just lived as an evolving soul, it is possible for you to choose to live the same life plan again. This is usually decided at the oval courtyard chamber. You will have an in-depth discussion with your soul panel, the souls who are in charge of recording and administering your lives, your guides and your protector. Nearly all the earthling souls do not live their best-scenario-life. They live maybe 5-15% of their best-life-scenario on "Earth". If this is the case, you will not go into your light. You will sign a few papers and you will be put in a waiting cubicle until a human body is found that will fit your previous, old life plan. You will enter human life once again. Souls can choose to live the same life plan for several incarnations.

It is very important to understand that in "Heaven" or the "dreamtime", planet Earth is controlled, overseen, regulated and administered by a soul council, which changes every 10,000 years.

THE SOUL DIMENSION "dreamtime" IS A PARALLEL SYSTEM UNIVERSE.

The last council changeover was in 2020. This is comparable to a functional, operational human World Government, which controls, oversees, regulates and administers all World related affairs and is based on the "Will of all Peoples of all People Nations" and not the "Will" of a select few unelected elite royal and financier oligarchs and absolute rulers.

The process of human death has changed radically and dramatically since 2017. Before 2017 the process of human death was very different from what is today. The above-mentioned is the present story of human death. My book "The Past, Present, Future of the Beforelife, Birth, Live, Death and Afterlife TOME IV" will go into more detail. When planet "Earth" reaches human enlightenment, soul consciousness and transformation, the process of human death will change again. There will be no physical death. There will be a deathless departure whereby the electron body you have transforms into the energy soul you are. You will be able to be body or soul and go back and forth between "Earth" and "Heaven".

Succinct summary overview

As a soul you were there before your birth "beforelife" waiting for your parents to conceive. This occurs when the sperm, egg, you as a soul (without a mind or personality), your living light (consciousness, mind) and living proton void (thought, personality) are connected together. You as a soul are born into a human body vehicle or “birth”. You as a soul will live the full life in this human body. You are the body in the day or “life”. You are the soul in the night or “dreamtime”. You as a body will die or “death”. As a soul you will leave your human body and continue in the afterlife or “dreamtime” where you will do your life review after awakening to your soul consciousness reality. You will sign out and go into your light, fall asleep, arrive, wake up and to do another integrative life interview of all your lives you have ever lived as an evolving soul in your mansion related to the color of your aura. You will go to sleep. When you awaken you will prepare a new life plan. You will return to Earth through your light or consciousness. You will fall asleep, arrive and wake up. You will sign in. You will be placed in a waiting chamber waiting for your parents to conceive. You are (re)born or “rebirth”. You are in life = school to obtain a white aura system through human enlightenment, soul consciousness and transformation to reach the true liberation of the soul and stop Cycle 1 of bodily incarnations or “death-re-death” and the soul or “life-re-birth”. The soul finally fully integrates and matures. It will permanently connect with its light or mind or consciousness. It will receive his or her eternal name, identity, face and personality and starts Cycle 2 of its evolution. This is a choice. The mature, integrated soul will personalise its consciousness or mind.
